

HONORING ALL WHO SERVED

VETERANS DAY

NOVEMBER 11, 2007

I am your Flag.

I was born on June 14, 1777.

I am more than just cloth shaped into a design.

I am a refuge of the World's oppressed people.

I am the silent sentinel of Freedom.

I am the emblem of the greatest sovereign nation on earth.

I am the inspiration for which American Patriots gave their lives and fortunes.

I have led your sons into battle from Valley Forge to the bloody jungles of Viet Nam.

I walk in silence with each of your honored dead, to their final resting place beneath the silent white crosses, row upon row.

I have flown through Peace and War, Strife and Prosperity, and amidst it all I have been respected.

My Red Stripes--symbolize the blood spilled in defense of this glorious nation.

My White Stripes--signify the burning tears shed by Americans who lost their sons.

My Blue Field--is indicative of God's heaven under which I fly.

My Stars--clustered together, unify FIFTY STATES as one, for God and Country.

Honor Me, respect me, defend me with your lives and your fortunes.

Never let my enemies tear me down from my lofty position, lest I never return.

Keep alight the fires of patriotism; strive earnestly for the spirit of democracy.

Worship Eternal God and keep His commandments and I shall remain the bulwark of peace and freedom for all mankind.

I am your Flag.

WE ARE PROUD TO SUPPORT OUR VETERANS

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

October 3, 2007

I send greetings to those gathered for the 2007 Tribute to Veterans.

In every generation, members of our Armed Forces have proudly stepped forward to defend our Nation and uphold the ideals of our founding. Their service and sacrifice has helped defeat the enemies of freedom and lay the foundations of peace for generations to come. By answering history's call with honor, decency, and resolve, our veterans have shown the power of liberty and earned the respect and admiration of a grateful Nation.

I appreciate all those who support our veterans and their families. Your efforts pay tribute to the enduring accomplishments of these American heroes and help us honor their service.

Laura and I send our best wishes on this special occasion. May God bless you, may God bless our troops, and may God bless America.

Harold Dye is a retired Brigadier General. He served in the United States Army in Europe in World War II and later on the Armistice Commission in Korea where, as a senior member of the United Nations Military Armistice Commission Joint Observer Team, he met with his Communist counterparts over 100 times in the demilitarized zone to investigate atrocities and other actions on the part of the Communists, which, unresolved, could have led to a resumption of the war. He also served on the Department of Army and Secretary of Defense Staffs during the Vietnam War. He was awarded numerous medals, but states that his most cherished award was that of being named by the Chief of Chaplains as “Layman of the Year” for the United States Army Europe in 1964.

General Dye retired from the Army in 1967 with over 30 years of service and became Deputy Commissioner of Industry and Trade for the state of Georgia where he helped with the first great expansion of Georgia Business and Industry, which brought jobs and prosperity to the state. He was instrumental in building the World Congress Center, which put Atlanta on the world map, paving the way for such great events as the Olympics and, the Salvation Army International Millennial Congress.

John Maher is a graduate of Hapeville High School and 1970 graduate of the University of Georgia. There he was a distinguished military graduate of the UGA ROTC Program as well as the Outstanding Real Estate and Insurance Major of the Terry School of Business. John completed his Masters Degree in Management and Supervision at Central Michigan University.

John served an Army Career of 30 years, 7 of those years as a General Officer. He commanded multiple Infantry units including 3 Infantry Platoons, 2 Infantry Rifle Companies, 2 Infantry Battalions, a Brigade and an Infantry Division. As an Operations Officer, he served at every level from Battalion, to Brigade, Corps, Combined and Joint Staff. He served as the Assistant Division Commander for Operations of the 24th Division at Fort Stewart, the Assistant Commander and Deputy Commanding General for the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Georgia and as the Commanding General of the 25th Infantry Division and US Army Hawaii.

Following retirement in January 2000, John has continued to serve the US Government in the Global War on Terror providing support to classified government contracts with his consulting and service contracts company.

The Atlanta Concert Band, in its 34th consecutive season, is composed of professional, semi-professional, and amateur musicians whose love for music brings them together to perform. The members are unpaid volunteers who commit to weekly rehearsals to prepare repertoire for concerts throughout metro Atlanta and beyond. Originally formed in 1958, the Atlanta Concert Band performed until 1969. The band was reformed by its original members in 1973 and this year we celebrate our 33rd anniversary from the date of reorganization. This year marks the 46th all-inclusive season of Atlanta Concert Band performances – more years than any other community band in the Atlanta area. Membership is always open to new members who are competent on a brass, woodwind, or percussion instrument. New members are accepted on an on-going basis, subject to instrumental balance. Some sections currently have waiting lists so interested musicians should call (404) 237-9711 to inquire.

The mission of the Atlanta Concert Band is to provide great music to the public, while providing an outlet for adult musicians to perform.

John P. Miller, Conductor and Director of Music, received his BME degree in music from Florida State University. He was a band director for the Atlanta Board of Education from 1966 until retiring in 2001, teaching at Brown High School, Therrell High School, and Atlanta elementary schools. He has played trumpet with the St. Petersburg Symphony, Atlanta Community Symphony Orchestra, Six Flags Pit Orchestra, Emory Wind Ensemble, The Nostalgics, the Big Peach Swing Band and many other ensembles. Mr. Miller joined the Atlanta Concert Band in 1974 as principal trumpet. In 1976 he became assistant conductor, and was named conductor and music director in 1984

Walter L. Hickman, Assistant Conductor, earned the Bachelor of Music degree from the University of Tennessee and a Master of Music from Georgia State University. He moved to the Atlanta area in 1986 to accept the award of Graduate Assistant at Georgia State University. He served on the music staff at Rehoboth Baptist Church in Tucker, Georgia from 1988-2001 and currently is the staff trombonist at Dunwoody Baptist Church, Dunwoody, Georgia. He began studio teaching in 1990, and has performed often since age 16. He has enjoyed a variety of engagements, including hundreds of community, recording and traveling events, performing for such artists as The Temptations, The Four Tops, the Impressions, The Supremes, Barry Manilow, Aretha Franklin, Johnny Mathis, Bernadette Peters, Marvin Hamlisch, Frank Sinatra Jr., Dionne Warwick, Brian Wilson of the Beach Boys, the Moody Blues, and others. He currently serves as the Associate Director of Bands at Peachtree Charter Middle School in the DeKalb County School System. Mr. Hickman joined the Atlanta Concert Band in 2002 as principal trombone and became Assistant Conductor in 2004.

Jerry Carnes, a news reporter at WXIA TV for the past 19 years is the moderator for the 2007 Tribute to Veterans at First Baptist Church of Hapeville. Mr. Carnes has a wife and three children. His 19 year old son is a student at the University of Georgia.

Carl Beck is a retired Army Master Sergeant with a distinguished Service Career. He parachuted into Normandy on the morning of D-Day. He parachuted into Holland in September of 1944. He was awarded several medals including the Bronze Star, Purple Heart, Commendation Medal, Presidential Unit Citation with Cluster, French Croix de Guerre, Belgian Forregueurre, and Dutch Order of Wilhelms. He served tours in Saudi Arabia and Iran. On June 6, 2004 he was awarded the French Legion of Honor. He parachuted into Normandy on June 6, 1994 and again on June 7, 2004 to commemorate the 50th and 60th anniversaries of D-Day.

Mr. Beck retired from the service in 1963 as a MGST and later served with the City of Atlanta as a Transportation Engineer, retiring in July, 1988.
