Notes from Tom

Sunday was a “chilly” or “chili” or “chile” day, depending on your point of view. It was a little cool in the sanctuary due to a heating mechanical failure. We hope to have this problem repaired before next Sunday. Thanks to everyone for your willingness to endure cooler temperatures to be together in worship. And thanks to the Sanctuary Choir for an outstanding job on “With a Voice of Singing.” What a wonderful way to start a new year!

Sunday evening was also a great time to be together. The fellowship hall was a little warmer as we gathered for our annual chili supper together. And, of course, the chile peppers helped to warm things up as well. Thanks to all who shared together and helped us to have another time of fellowship together.

Please remember that Prayer Meeting now begins at 6:00 p.m. on Wednesdays, and Sanctuary Choir rehearsal begins at 6:45 p.m. We will plan for rehearsal to end by 8:00 p.m. each week.

If you have news or notes for THE WEEKLY WITNESS, please contact the church office by Monday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. Due to printing and mailing schedules, we cannot guarantee immediate publication of anything that comes to us later than 2:00 p.m. Monday afternoon. Announcements for the Sunday bulletin must be in the office before Thursday mornings at 10:00 a.m. for publication the following Sunday. Thank you for helping us keep on schedule!
