JUST THINKING. . .

Bob Wiley
Pastor

As we celebrate 125 years of ministry, the Lord continues to bless our church! Decisions that were made this past Sunday brought the total of new members this calendar year to 26! Our celebration will begin the Sunday morning with an observance of baptism.

Paul wrote the Philippian church acknowledging their financial support of his ministry, "They are a fragrant offering, an acceptable sacrifice, pleasing to God." Such has been your financial support of the ministry of this church through the years. But I come encouraging you to continue to be generous in your giving. First Baptist Church finds itself in a crunch that has demanded a "tightening of the belt."

I urge you to pray about your giving. I believe that we can give above our regular giving this coming Sunday. If 100 of us could each give $125 above our regular tithes and offerings, that $12,500 would make a significant impact upon the ministry of this church over the next few months. It may be that you need to spread that $125 over a period of time. It may be that you can give much more than $125. It know that the Apostle Paul assured the Philippian believers and those who honor the Lord with sacrificial giving, "And my God will meet all your needs according to his glorious riches in Christ Jesus."

To God be the Glory!
Pastor Bob
